

Chariot House acquire Clark Brownscombe Hove charity division. Clark Brownscombe Hove have a history and the strength of the brand in charity accounting built over many years, by integrating with Chariot House 'not for profit' department we have cemented the team's pre-eminence in Brighton and Hove's Charity sector.

A senior management team at Clark Brownscombe Hove, led by John Thacker will be moving across the city to Chariot House's Brighton office.

Mark Partridge, Managing Director at Chariot House, the purchase is a significant move for us and shows our ambition to offer a first rate service to this important market. The Charities team will continue to offer its expertise to the sector through its popular seminars and newsletters. We will also develop this offering across the London charity market utilising Chariot House's existing London office at Moorgate.
